Dear God, Why Do Bad People Win?

Psalm 73

Introduction

Bullies!

Orientation (v. 1)

"Surely God is good ..." (v. 1)

Disorientation (vv. 2-15)

- Why are the bullies winners?
- Why should I be a loser?

"Surely in vain have I kept my heart pure ..." (v. 13)

Reorientation (vv. 16-28)

- till I entered the sanctuary of God; then I understood.

"Surely you place them on slippery ground ..." (v. 18)

Conclusion

"But as for me, it is good to be near God." (v. 28)

Questions for Reflection and Discussion

1. What do you remember about the sermon or the scripture text?
2. Why does God let wicked people prosper? Why does suffering continue? Does this psalm answer these questions? Do you have an answer for it?
3. At the end of the psalm, what has changed? How has that change (if any) happened?
4. When was the last time you asked God difficult questions about your life? How did you feel? Was there any resolution?

I Love The Lord

Psalm 116:1-19

Introduction

Reasons

Response

Remember

Conclusion

Discussion Questions:

1. What do you remember about the passage/message?
2. Why did God answer some prayers and not others?
3. How would you describe your relationship with God? How is your prayer life?
4. If everything falls in your life, would you still love God? Why?

Prayer Points

Our Church

Fellowship Tea - Thank God that with the relaxed restrictions, fellowship tea can resume in the coming weeks. We pray that members will step up to help serve one another. Let your Shepherding Team know if you are interested to volunteer!

#DinnerChurch - Pray for the 3pm & 5pm Congregations as they embark on this new ministry to have Sunday evening family meals with one another. May it be a blessing to friends and visitors alike.

Bishan Home - Positive COVID-19 cases have been detected in the home each day in the past week, with the total number coming to 39 residents and 9 staff members, with some having to be sent to A&E. Pray for strength & resilience for the remaining staff to be able to care for the rest of the residents well and depend on God's mercy and grace to tide through this difficult time.

Soccer Ministry - Thank God for the resumption of activities at the end of last month and the recent addition of 3 kids and 1 youth. Pray for the ongoing efforts in building relationships with them, that the good news of Jesus can be shared through this ministry.

Our World

Nepal - Pray for our partners here in West and East Nepal as they faithfully reach out to unreached communities in this mountainous land. We thank God for the small number of special needs children that our West Nepal partner has been able to care for. Most of these children have autism and we are thankful for a small team from Zion Bishan who have regular online meetings with the ones caring for these special needs children. May these sessions help provide quality care and education for children with autism.

Ukraine - Many Ukrainians braved shelling across the country to go to Church this past Sunday, 24 Apr, to commemorate Orthodox Easter and also to mourn for loved ones killed. News reports estimate that 5.2 million Ukrainians have fled the country, with another 7.7 million displaced within Ukraine (The Straits Times, 25 Apr 2022). Pray for God's comfort for the people facing displacement, uncertainty and vulnerability. May Christians continue to provide and show Christ's love to those in need.

A WALKING MIRACLE

A Thanksgiving by Queenie Ng-Lim

“Queenie, your PET scan result is very, very good. No inflammation or cancer seen.”

I received the above text message from Dr John, my oncologist, a day after my PET scan.

What a relief! I burst out into happy tears. My heart overflowed with joy and gratitude to my Lord.

I had prepared myself for the worst. The prognosis for my stage 4 ovarian cancer was gloomy. There is a 90% chance that my cancer will return within the next 2 years. Global statistics look pretty dismal too with only 17% surviving beyond 5 years.

Nevertheless, I chose to place my trust in God. I believed that He can do the impossible (“For with God nothing will be impossible.” Luke 1: 37).

I want to thank God for the privilege of experiencing cancer.

“Why?” you may ask me.

Well, cancer allowed me to experience God in a very real and intimate way. When you come close enough to death, the definitions of ‘God’ and ‘life’ are never the same. The nitty gritty things that used to bother me do not matter at all anymore. What really matters is our faith in Him.

The past year of my life was traumatic. But I was able to rest in the promise of 1 Corinthians 10:13. I experienced God’s faithfulness. I saw that He would not allow us to be tested beyond what we are able to bear but, when we are being tested, He truly provides a way for us to be able to endure the trial.

Before this ordeal, I had only been admitted to hospital once. It was when I gave birth to my only child. Since April last year, I made numerous trips to the hospital for blood tests, scans, intravenous infusions, and consultations.

Though God allowed all these challenges into my life, He provided all the resources and support I needed. My doctors monitored my condition very cautiously. They were also willing to go the extra mile for me.

Michael, my husband, and Emma, my daughter, have been my 2 pillars of support since day 1. Michael not only helps me out with my business, he also drives me to and from each and every one of my medical appointments. Emma has taken on the role of a 'mother': constantly nagging me to drink water and to sleep early. Maricel, my domestic helper, prepares ginger tea and massages my abdominal area whenever intense pain arises.

My church family and friends have also been a constant source of encouragement to me. They pray for me and send messages of hope and inspiration.

I also have been blessed with different groups of friends who would walk with me each week. I am not inclined to exercising so this act of kindness helps me get moving. Thus, this chapter of my life has allowed me to experience God's all-sufficient grace. Indeed, I have never felt alone.

It is nearing a year from my diagnosis. Life is almost back to normal for me. The only difference is that I have to go for intravenous infusions once in 3 weeks and am on oral medication.

Thankfully, I am able to drive and leave home to meet my customers. I have started to attend in-person service since December last year. I also have resumed my gardening activities in church just a month ago.

My hair has grown back! Praise God!

Though from time to time, I would experience diarrhea and ache in my stomach which can be as painful as birth pangs, but I am generally feeling very well.

In fact, a friend who walks with me weekly, rightly proclaims that I am – literally – a 'walking miracle'!

I have discovered first-hand that our God has a reason for all the things that happen in our lives. We do not fully grasp His wisdom as His ways are higher than our ways and His thoughts are higher than our thoughts (Isaiah 55:9) but we can simply trust in His perfect and loving will for us.
