Introduction

Reasons

Response

Remember

Conclusion

Discussion Questions:

1. What do you remember about the passage/message?
2. Why did God answer some prayers and not others?
3. How would you describe your relationship with God? How is your prayer life?
4. If everything falls in your life, would you still love God? Why?

Dear God, Why Do Bad People Win?

Psalm 73

Introduction

Bullies!

Orientation (v. 1)

“Surely God is good ...” (v. 1)

Disorientation (vv. 2-15)

- Why are the bullies winners?
- Why should I be a loser?

“Surely in vain have I kept my heart pure ...” (v. 13)

Reorientation (vv. 16-28)

- till I entered the sanctuary of God; then I understood.

“Surely you place them on slippery ground ...” (v. 18)

Conclusion

“But as for me, it is good to be near God.” (v. 28)

Questions for Reflection and Discussion

1. What do you remember about the sermon or the scripture text?
2. Why does God let wicked people prosper? Why does suffering continue? Does this psalm answer these questions? Do you have an answer for it?
3. At the end of the psalm, what has changed? How has that change (if any) happened?
4. When was the last time you asked God difficult questions about your life? How did you feel? Was there any resolution?

Prayer Points

Our Church

Domestic Helpers' Fellowship (DHF) -

3rd May was the 2nd anniversary of their virtual meetings. Thank God for Zoom, which has enabled them to meet every Sunday without fail for the past 2 years! They train helpers in Bible study so that they can study on their own and lead Bible studies even after they leave Zion Bishan or Singapore. Many helpers have returned to their home countries or transferred to non-Christian employers. Pray that they will continue to walk with Jesus and study the Bible, and also for more helpers to join them, including helpers of all ZB families.

Christianity Explored - Last Wednesday (4 May) was the last session of CE for this run. Thank God for the 5 seekers who continued to stick with us throughout the sessions. Pray for our table hosts as they follow up with them, and for the Spirit to keep working in their hearts to bring them to faith in the Gospel. We are looking forward to our next run in September, with Table Hosts training beginning in August.

Our People

The Lim Family - Pray for them and their two children who are embarking this week for Greece for about 2 months to explore how they can participate in God's love to the refugees there. May there be a good settling down to a rhythm of ministry and other family activities. The recent conflict in Afghanistan and Ukraine has led to increasing numbers of refugees fleeing to Europe. This presents both a great need for food and shelter but also many opportunities to share the hope and healing of Christ to many people. Thank God for the opportunity for this family to explore what they can do in these two months and also for the longer term.

Our World

Myanmar - The need for food and basic necessities continue to be present in Myanmar since the military coup that occurred on 1 Feb 2021. Praise God for a ministry partner in Myanmar who has been providing shelter for about 18-25 family members in his home and also serving the needs of his neighbours and community with rice distribution. Pray for peace to come back to this nation and for the vulnerable to be protected.

Philippines - Typhoon Odette in December 2021 left a wake of damaged buildings and homes in in Negros Occidental near our ministry partner SMO (Student Missionary Outreach). However this opened up opportunities to share the gospel, help them with food and water, solar lights, a generator set and materials for repairs for their homes and church buildings. God brought together Christian churches and organisations, individuals, both locally and outside the country to help in this way. Thank God for this opportunity for God's love to shine far and wide through this crisis. Pray for the follow up efforts of SMO, that it would continue to build bridges for the gospel to go out to further here.

A New Beginning @8.30am

Last Sunday on 1 May 2022, the 1pm Service congregation (with its shepherding team comprising Ps Zheng Haoren, Eld Sonny Tan, Ng Zhiwen, and other ministry & BOD personnel) made the much-anticipated move to the 8.30am timeslot.

It is quite appropriate that the people who care for the various congregations are named “shepherding teams” because that is truly what we are, shepherds of the flock under our care.

“I am the good shepherd. I know my sheep and my sheep know me – just as the Father knows me and I know the Father – and I lay down my life for the sheep.” John 10:14-15

The 8.30am shepherding team seeks to know the Father and to lay our lives down for the sheep. How do we want to grow? Here are 6 ways...

God’s Word – As we hear scripture preached weekly, as a congregation, we want to hear our heavenly father clearly and to do His will. One of the best ways is to continue discussing God’s word and living life together in an Action Group (AG, i.e. a church cell group). May we encourage you to consider joining one if you are not in an AG.

Corporate Worship – As a congregation, it is our joy to be able to come together each week to worship our Lord together as a Church family. As we are able to sing and pray together, may these times bless all who gather together.

Prayer – As a congregation, may we approach each challenge and joy in our lives together with much prayer and thanksgiving. In the times of corporate prayer together, we hope to encourage all to lift both the good and bad up to our Lord God.

Fellowship – Our prayer is to grow together in the bonds of friendship and love for one another. We are glad to restart our time of “Fellowship Tea” after service. Last week, we really enjoyed our nasi lemak and chat with each other after service.

Hospitality – As a congregation, we want to be a welcoming and hospitable place for all who are new to our service. May this be a culture not just amongst our serving teams, but also practised by all who come to this service regularly.

Witnessing – May we be active in witnessing for Christ to the lost around us, testifying to God’s goodness and reign in our lives.

May God be glorified!

Mini and Mighty: Preschoolers Learning Loving Values

It's every Christian mother's heartbeat: the desire that their children grow up in favour with God and Man. The formative preschool years are essential in establishing children in the ways of Jesus and giving them a strong foundation in character.

Be inspired by what is possible from preschoolers, raised in Christian preschools like Zion Bishan Kindergarten in partnership with parents.

Learning about Healing Relationships

Feby, mother of Gwyneth (5), is happy that her daughter is thriving in an environment that practises loving kindness. She has loving friends and learns forgiveness through the close collaboration between parents and teachers.

Once, Gwyneth was accidentally hurt by a rambunctious classmate. But she was taught to reframe her interpretation of hurt and to be more understanding when there was no intent of malice. Forgiveness takes time. With the encouragement and help from teachers, the two little ones are now good friends again.

Her mother says, "I am so glad that children are learning how to increase their circle of friends and get along with others who might be different from themselves. Being able to get along with others and be confident is extremely important to us. I am glad that these values are caught in Zion Bishan Kindergarten."

Gwyneth with her mother, Feby Chandra

Embracing Grace and Gratitude

Parents of Katerina Jimenez, Nicole and Juan, see God's goodness expressed in their lives when they found a preschool which uphold values they themselves subscribe to.

They explained: "We wanted a preschool where the children learn to be grateful, and so, counter our culture of entitlement. The children at Zion Bishan Kindergarten say grace before meals. Also, we wanted a school where there was discipline and a sense of belonging. Through Aunty June's bible stories the children are taught respect for authority and devotion to God. They begin to have a relationship with Him."

Katerina Jimenez and her parents, Juan and Nicole

In a loving environment, Katerina is able to express her care for others and receive help. “When her classmates fall down, she helps them up and consoles them. She picks some flowers or gives someone a little stone. There are no bullies in this kind of environment,” says Juan, who was originally from Panama.

Sensitising Children to Little Sins in the Heart

For Alyssa, learning to share with her sibling and waiting for her turn to play with toys was formerly a big struggle. Now it is less so because her mother, Ruth Quek, has explained how meeting one’s desires does not justify hurting others.

Now Alyssa prays, “Please help me to love my brother, and not think only about myself. Please help me share.” So she has begun to learn how to recognise when her natural self-centred desires start and to be more self-regulating.

Catching this value of sharing is not just accidental.

Compassion, being kind to one another, is reinforced in her Christian preschool. The children learn that God first loved humans so we can love others too. Now in her family, they pray for fighting to stop in Ukraine, for less conflict and for peace to come.

“In a Christian preschool, what is different is an unconditional love that will nurture the child beyond just teaching them to be a morally good person. We need to understand that Christian preschool education is a meaningful ministry and provides a strong foundation in faith that will bear the fruits of the spirit in HIS time,” says Ruth.

Indeed, Zion Bishan Kindergarten cherishes partnership with parents in their children’s learning journey. “Parents play a critical role in children’s learning and development. Partnership with parents is important to nurture the whole child and is critical in developing consistency between the home and the preschool learning environment during this important window in a child’s life,” Mrs Serene Chang, Principal of Zion Bishan Kindergarten.

Empathy and Compassion

Little Alyssa immediately turns to God to heal her mother’s finger when she heard that it was hurt in the kitchen. Mini but mighty values of compassion have become a reality through the culture in school. Alyssa has learnt to turn to God on behalf of others.
