Exalt our Holy King!

Psalm 99

15 May 2022

Mr Ng Zhiwen

What a summons to praise the holy King (v 1-3)

What king loves justice? (v. 4-5)

What king answers when we call? (v. 6-7)

What king forgives and avenges? (v. 8)

What a holy mountain (v. 9)

For Reflection and Response:

1. Read Psalm 99 out loud, speaking the parts that address the LORD directly as if you were speaking to Him. Speak with a tone that fits the Psalm. Think about what posture your body should have.
2. State the reasons that this Psalm offers for why we should exalt the LORD.
3. In what ways have you come to recognize the LORD as holy?
Worship Him for it.

Prayer Points

Our Church

Tuition Ministry - Pray for the youth and the kids who are in the midst of preparing for their mid-year exams. Pray for diligence and discipline in their studying, and that they will be touched by the love of God as they seek to do well amidst what might be a stressful time for many of them.

Our People

Pray for Bro Sum Pooi - Efforts to find a longer term solutions for his physical and health needs has yet to be found. We thank God for the group of brothers and sisters who have committed to bring meals daily, calling to check in on him and also to bring Sum Pooi to his medical appointments.

Our World

Sri Lanka - This nation has faced months of street protests as Asia's fastest inflation and mismanagement of government finances lead to shortages of food and fuel (The Straits Times, 10 May 2022). Pray that this Buddhist majority nation will seek peaceful ways to solve its growing political turmoil and deepening economic crisis without further violence and loss of life. Pray that Christians in this nation will be salt and light in their communities and may the love of Christ bring peace in this crisis.

India - In the Northeast, our partner has reported encouraging developments where a new church has been built. Pray for their planned outreach to colleges and young people. Pray for wisdom and good opportunities to share Christ with the next generation and college-educated. In the Hindi Belt region, our partner has requested prayers for more workers and support as more centres are established. Another partner in the eastern state is conducting medical camps to rural villages, pray for the harvest as workers interact with the villagers.

Indonesia - Our Missiology School alumni have requested prayers for the students from an Indonesian theological school to be called to work in Kalimantan and elsewhere in western Indonesia. Pray for the ongoing discipleship work amongst new believers in Sumatra. May more church leaders in Indonesia have God's vision to mobilise and disciple the next generation of believers for the work of the Gospel. Pray for God's provision for the needs of our Missiology School alumnae who have been faithful in reaching out to their neighbours.

#DinnerChurch @ 5pm

On May 1st, the 5pm congregation began its #dinnerchurch initiative.

Each week, volunteers (who even attended a food-handling safety course!) prepare a full meal for anyone who wants to eat together. Being the 'last service' gives us the luxury of space and time to have unhurried fellowship at the cool of the day.

This meal is very important to us for 3 reasons:

1. Being Known. If we are to love one another as Jesus taught us, then we must know one another. We are always looking for avenues for our congregation to share life. An extended corporate prayer time, 1-1 catch ups during the week, #rest&roast sessions at the beach, and now #dinnerchurch. Church should never be a lonely place.

2. Making Room. We also wanted to find ways of being more hospitable – especially to newcomers. We note that so many have been brought to faith, first by hearing the Word, then by seeing that Word in action – particularly through hospitality. The willingness of the saints to make space in their lives for strangers. The willingness of God to make space.

3. Jesus Family. Finally, we observed that Sunday evenings are the most common time that families have dinner together. Why not then the family of Christ? Few things connote a sense of belonging more than having a regular meal. People who would always be there at the end (or start) of the week to remind you of your core identity. You belong to Jesus.

Friends, do pray for us as we continue to learn how to better minister to one another – and come and visit us anytime you are available! Anyone is welcome.
