Why Family?

Ephesians 2:13-19, 3:14-19

The Created Family

The Broken Family

The New Family

The Redeemed Family

The Final Family

Discussion Questions:

1. Why do you think God put us into families?
2. What problems have you inherited from your family of origin?
3. How does the gospel free us from the brokenness of family?
4. How does the church family relate to the nuclear family?

Prayer Points

Our Church

Prayer for the Family Ministry

pray for God's continued guidance & direction in this Ministry.

pray for God's hand of blessing upon the families in the church, that they are disciples in the Word & will continue to obey God's teachings so that their faith will continue to be strengthened.

pray for strong relationships in marriages that will ultimately display God's glory & grace. Marriages that will lay strong foundation for nurturing the faith of the next generation of children.

pray for parents to take the lead in passing faith to their children & to assume the role of being their main influencers for spiritual life & growth.

pray for the ministry leaders in this Ministry that they will be enabled & empowered by the Holy Spirit with the mission to equip every family member where faith is lived, discussed & nurtured, & the faith of the next generation be raised up to honor & glorify God.

Basic Action Group Leaders Equipping

Course - Please uphold the Basic Action Group Leaders Equipping (BAGLE) participants as the 6-week course begins today. Do pray that our Father will help each participant grow in clarity of healthy small groups according to His design in Scripture. Pray especially for refreshment and nourishment for all as we listen to the voice of the Good Shepherd, Jesus. Pray for God's help too as we explore difficult issues of pastoral care and burnout.

The Living Room (LR) - We heard from mission focus last week of the many doors God has opened for LR to share the love and the good news of Christ with seniors and residents in our Bishan neighbourhood. May we as a church family, both individually or as an AG, consider these initiatives by the LR & partner with the Holy Spirit in this way to make outreach an intentional part of our discipleship journey.

Our People

Daniel Tay - Please pray for our brother who will be undergoing a very major surgery on 31 May to remove a cancerous soft tissue tumour. It will be a 10-12 hour surgery involving the removal of several major organs as the tumour is a large one in the back of his abdominal cavity. Pray for God's hands to be with the whole team of surgeons and medical/nursing team during surgery and throughout the post-op period. Pray for Melissa, Minnie and Terry, & the extended family for God's peace and strength to fill their hearts.

Our World

NE India - Pray for Brother Cecil's wife, Sonali, who has Leukaemia for many years. Some of us at Zion Bishan will remember this couple when they were with us many years ago. Pray for God's grace and mercy as more painful tests are expected next month. Pray that those tests will help doctors know how to treat her current infection effectively. Thank God for the provision of flight tickets which has enabled her to return home quicker rather than enduring a long journey by train. She is currently resting at home.

BPCIS UPDATE (MAY 2022)

STRENGTHENING OUR CHURCHES

In the January Update, we spelled out the 3-fold agenda of BPCIS in the coming years: Devoting to Prayer, Building Bridges, and Strengthening our Churches, captured in the acronym DBS 2.0.

Since then, we thank the Lord for the following developments. The Good Friday Service, with one theme and speaker but held at different locations, brought together more than 1,500 onsite and another 1,725 online. Pastor Ivan Chow of Bethesda Church, Bukit Arang, gave a stirring message, “One Sacrifice, Once and for All”. The offering for BPCIS totalled $30,051.35.

We welcomed Hebron BP Church which joined BPCIS as our 10th member church on 10 March. Hebron promptly hosted the DMA Seminar on 30 April. Jointly sponsored by Biblical Graduate School of Theology and BPCIS, the seminar brought together 30 invited leaders from our 10 churches to consider pastoral implications from the newly introduced legislation, Divorce by Mutual Agreement. A brief report is found on our website, BPCIS.org.sg.

We look forward to two upcoming events: the Pastors & Leaders Retreat on 4-5 July at Changi Cove with Pastor Denesh of The Crossing Church as speaker, and the Annual Presbytery Meeting on 24 Sep at Mount Hermon’s new home at Henderson. For the latter we will not have a guest speaker this year. Instead, under the theme “Returning”, our churches will share on how the post-pandemic world looks like in their churches, and we spend time in prayer.

Finally, in April we added Joseph Tee (Zion Serangoon) to three men already preparing for ordination: Paul Yeo and Ng Zhiwen (Zion Bishan), David Leong (Emmanuel). We also welcome to the Presbytery newly elected elders: Loh Pin Chuan and Lai Pak Wah (Mount Carmel), Aric Loh (Shalom), Timothy Soh (Zion Serangoon), and Chan Kin Yip (Zion Bishan). May all that is happening go on to strengthen our churches.

Pastor David Wong
General Secretary, BPCIS

Announcements

June #GetReal Sermon Series

What does it mean to truly be an intergenerational church? How can we be united in partnership for the Gospel mission across our generations as one Body? Join us in June to explore these questions as one church family with the help of Rev Tan Soo Inn and others.

Registration for Services

<https://www.zionbishan.org.sg/2022/02/english-services-registration-2/>

Please continue to register for services, which helps us immensely in accounting for our members, identifying and engaging visitors, and reducing the walk-in load. Meanwhile, a review of the whole system is underway and we ask for your patience.
