Discipling Youth

Ephesians 4:11-16

Introduction

1) The things that stress our youths.

2) The needs of our youths.

3) Who will disciple our youths?

4) You can disciple our youths!

Questions for Reflection:

1. What do you remember about the message?
2. What do you understand about discipling youth?
3. If you are part of a family with youth, how can you better disciple your youth?
4. How can you better support other youths or families with youth in their discipleship journey?

Discipling Youth

Ephesians 4:7-10; 4:11-16

Introduction

It's not just about youths...

Seek to Understand...

Seek to Accept...

Conclusion

Questions for Reflection:

1. What do you remember about the message?
2. What do you understand about discipling youth?
3. If you are part of a family with youth, how can you better disciple your youth?
4. How can you better support other youths or families with youth in their discipleship journey?

Prayer Points

Our Church

Basic AG Leaders Equipping

(BAGLE) – Remember in prayer the 8 BAGLE participants as the course rounds up with a half-day retreat this coming Saturday (8 July). Pray for these 8 members and leaders as they engage with the topic of shepherding God’s sheep in their AGs, that they will learn to do so out of the care and refuge of Christ their Good Shepherd. Pray also that they will be challenged to think through healthy ideas of sustainable gospel service, as we consider the common danger of ministry burnout. May all our AG Leaders in Zion Bishan minister always out of the abundance of Jesus’ overflowing love for us.

Youth Sunday – As we celebrate Youth Sunday and spend time during the service to think about what discipleship amongst youth could look like, we want to be praising God for the intergen diversity in our ZB church family! Pray for our church family to be an intentional space for intergen personal discipleship to take place, and for patience and wisdom for our parents and youth leaders as they walk with our youths; pray for our youths that as they get to know Jesus, they too desire to #getdeep in their discipleship, even amidst the distractions and challenges of these days.

Our World

Indonesia – Our partner’s ministry to the blind is expanding to Bali and Nusa Tenggara Timur region. Thank God for the opportunity to train a significant of the blind community in the use of computers and in other ways too. Their recent survey team also found a village with many who are deaf and mute and are now praying about the opportunities to reach out to them. Pray that God will lead them clearly in this.

Hari Raya Haji – Pray that the love and light of Christ will be felt by many pilgrims who are expected to travel to Saudi Arabia for the Hajj this past week. May it also be a safe season for them as stampedes in the past has led to hundreds of deaths and injuries.

THANKS FOR YOUR RESPONSE

ONE-ON-ONE WITH JESUS

When the camp theme “One-on-One” was given to me, I thought of what Martin Luther said: “Every man must do two things alone: he must do his own believing and his own dying.”

Yes, we come to Jesus one-on-one, and one day, we will see Him face to face, one-on-one. Between the two encounters is our journey through life as His disciples. Now in my seventies, the years before me are less than those after me.

As I look forward to meet Jesus, I find my faith simplifying to one or two things. Over the past six decades since I prayed to invite Jesus into my life, I have grappled with many things. I have spent years in the study of the Bible, and dealt with all kinds of issues—academic, pastoral and contemporary.

I have travelled widely and seen the Christian faith expressed and challenged in different parts of the world. Through it all, I have sought to live out my faith, as I serve Christ in the ministry and in my family. What are the one or two things that really matter when it’s all over?

During the camp, I invited campers to join me to relive John 21. There, Jesus met Simon Peter one-on-one, and asked, “Do you love me?” But that question was preceded by Jesus demonstrating His love for Peter. He reminded Peter of their first meeting, reenacted the miracle of the fishes, invited him to breakfast, and restored him in love.

We ended the camp messages with two questions: How much do I love Jesus? How much does Jesus love me? While our love may fall short, His love will always be a 10 out of 10. In our discipleship journey, only those things matter, one-on-one with Jesus.

PROJECT TIMOTHY EVENING EXPOSITIONS 2023

Wed, Jul 19 - Thu, Jul 20

How do we read and understand Old Testament stories? To what extent are we meant to apply what happened back then in our lives today? The book of Joshua raises significant issues in this regard as we see Israel embark on a brutal conquest of the land of Canaan. What does this ancient text have to say to us today? Join us as we sit under the book of Joshua over two evenings and allow God's Spirit to teach and guide us. The speaker this year is Nigel Styles, Director of the Cornhill Training Course in London.
