Hannah's Prayer Song

1 Samuel 1:19 - 2:11

This is what Faith looks like

A Costly Vow

A Living Sacrifice

A Gospel Sign

This is what Faith sounds like

A Prayer of Praise

Sovereign Supremacy

Redemptive Reversal

The LORD is King. The LORD is my Salvation.

Reflection Questions:

1. What do you find most remarkable about Hannah's giving of her son? How is Hannah's act a sign of the gospel?
2. What promises have you made to the LORD? How have you determined to keep them?
3. Read Hannah's song once again (2:1-10). How has the LORD reversed and re-written your life story? Praise Him for it.

Hannah's Prayer Song

1 Samuel 1:19-2:11

Recap: Helpless Hannah...

Samuel

Given by the LORD (1:19-20)

Given to the LORD (1:21-28)

Hannah's Prayer Song

REJOICING: The unrivalled LORD my God (2:1-3)

REVERSING: The almighty LORD who humbles and exalts (2:4-8)

REIGNING: The ruling LORD who will set His king over all (2:9-10)

Hannah's Song and...

The Samuel Story

Our Salvation Story

Discussion Questions

1. How do you feel as you read of Hannah receiving Samuel and giving him to the LORD? (1:19-28) Why does she do this?
2. What is the most striking or interesting line in Hannah's Prayer Song to you? Why?
3. How is your heart responding as you see the picture Hannah paints of our God? Why?
4. Why is it that Hannah seems to be singing and praying of things or events much bigger than herself? How does this help us look forward to the narrative ahead in the book?

Prayer Points

Our Church

Terusan Guest Workers Ministry

– Praise the Lord for His grace in sustaining this ministry - workers have been reached with the gospel, their fellowship strengthened, and lives touched by Christ's love. Pray that these workers may continue growing in faith and find belonging in God's family, for protection and well-being as they labour and work far from home. Pray also for the ministry's leaders and volunteers to serve with wisdom and strength and for growing and fruitful partnerships that will extend God's love.

Catechism Class – Praise God for the 26 catechumens who began this round of our catechism class yesterday, led by 6 of our members as table hosts! May the Lord guide them into a season of embracing and enjoying their union with Christ. Pray also that they will find a welcome into the Zion Bishan family both in their congregations and eventually in Action Groups.

Our People

KY – Pray for Sister KY, who has been serving the mental and social health needs of refugees in West Asia. Her father was recently diagnosed with cancer, therefore she has come back to Singapore to help care for him. Pray that he may come to know and experience the truth and love of Christ and come to a saving faith in Him.

Our World

Bangladesh - Almost 128 million Bangladeshis went to the polls on Thursday, 12 Feb to elect new political leaders after an uprising of the people toppled its long-time leader in August 2024 (Reuters). The top concern for voters is corruption and the need to deal with inflation and unemployment. Pray that a government would be elected that would serve its people with wisdom and equity, that the church may lead a peaceful and quiet life to proclaim and display Christ. Only 0.5% of the population are Christians (Joshua Project) - may our God strengthen them to persevere in faithfulness and love in the midst of this to be salt and light in this populous nation.

Getting Rest

Following on from Ps Zhiwen's update about the Music & PA teams last week, what else have we been doing or organising that will help us either experience, think through or better understand the rest promised to us in Christ?

1. Retreats. Since January, at least 12 of our staff and elected leaders have attended a one-day silent retreat at CSF (Centre for Spiritual Formation), with another 20 scheduled to attend by May this year. We hope this will cultivate a habit of our leaders taking intentional time off to spend time with God.
2. Courses. We have already announced sessions by our brother Scuter to help us rethink spiritual disciplines over the next 3 months (fully booked). In May we will be getting BGST to conduct a half-day session on the basics of Spiritual Formation, and from next month I will be organising workshops on Sabbath.
3. Camp. Preparations are well under way to ensure this year's church camp will have much time for reflection and prayer (while not neglecting the children). While it is no easy task to ensure this environment for 500 people, we are sure that God will help design something that engages our hearts as much as our heads.

What else is in store? Who knows. We are waiting for God to show us, guide us, lead us, delight us. Isn't that a little bit of what resting in Him is all about?
