The Weeping King

Luke 19:28-48

Meditations for the start of Holy Week

“Our hearts are restless until they find their rest in You.” St. Augustine

The King Comes (19:28-40)

Triumphal Entry

Recognition and Rejoicing

Can you worship a donkey king?

The King Weeps (19:41-44)

The Tragedy of Blindness

Will you weep over what makes Him weep?

The King Cleanses (19:45-48)

The Temple Cleansing

A House of Prayer (Isaiah 56:7); A Den of Robbers (Jeremiah 7:8-11)

Reflection Questions:

1. Will you celebrate and worship a ‘Donkey King’?
2. Would you receive this King and the rest that He offers - the things that make for peace?
3. Will you weep for anything in your life that rejects Him?
4. Will you throw off any thought of ‘cheap grace’ and a ‘false security in the things of God’?
5. Invite Him now to cleanse you of anything that resists His words, His presence, and His rule.

Prayer Points

Our Church

Good Friday - May the Lord help us meditate upon Christ's death for us on the Cross this Good Friday, as we commemorate the wonderful news of our Savior's sacrifice together with brothers and sisters from other BP churches. Pray that this coming week will also be a time of unhurried and prayerful reflection upon our dear Lord Jesus.

Bishan Home – The residents have been facing outbreaks of flu and gastroenteritis. Pray for God's healing hand to grant recovery and bring a swift end to the spread of illness. Pray also for the staff and caregivers during this challenging period. Thank God for the helpers on weekday outings, ensuring that each resident is supported and cared for. Pray for more volunteers to be serving from a heart of compassion and joy.

Sin Ming 410 – Thank God for relationships built with residents over recent years through monthly visits to this block of flats. We thank God also for church members and friends who contributed items for the bazaar this Saturday (28 Mar), and availed themselves to be there to share the hospitality and welcome of Christ, many households were blessed with clothing. Pray for more volunteers to join this outreach and relationship building ministry.

Our World

Nepal – Pray for the team of 2 sisters who are leaving for Nepal this coming Tuesday. They will be spending time with 12 to 15 of their workers who are focused on reaching Tibetan ethnic background peoples that live in very remote parts of the Himalayas. May it be a good time of mutual encouragement and learning. Pray for good health and safety in the air and on land as weather can change and affect safety easily in this region.

BPCIS UPDATE

“Golgotha is the place where the Son of God was lifted up, that all men might be drawn to him.” Augustine of Hippo

First, the bad news. For the first time since we began our Easter Sunrise Service at MacRitchie Reservoir in 1957, our application for the use of the venue was not approved. After appeals through different channels, and exploring other options, we decided we will take a break this year. Let us be thankful to the Lord, and to our authorities, for the opportunity to meet the Lord in the early dawn at such serene natural park setting—for almost 70 years!

Our Good Friday services will continue as in past years, this year in three host churches: Shalom (East), Zion Bishan (Central) and Mount Carmel (West). Details of locations and services are already publicised in all our churches. Let us make time to remember our Lord, and look to the Cross of Golgotha (Matthew 27.33), the theme of this year’s services.

For churches that observe the Lent season, we have completed the fifth week, today being Palm Sunday, tomorrow beginning the Holy Week leading to Good Friday and Easter Sunday. Lent is a season of lament, reminding us that we live in a world – both global and personal – filled with loss and sadness, conflict and pain. In the Psalms of Lament, the psalmists cry out to God: “How long, O LORD? Will you forget me forever?” “Out of the depths I cry to you, O LORD! Hear my voice!” “All this has come upon us, though we have not forgotten you...” (Psalms 13, 130, 44).

We can sense their struggle and anguish, also our part in the lifelong journey with our Lord. Not all will be peace and joy, not all with clear and easy answers. Life is messy, so is the Cross, at the place of the skull (Golgotha), not a pleasant thought or sight. But through the Cross (not around it), we find true joy and deep peace. At our Good Friday services, we will end with an altar call, an opportunity for us to stand and dedicate (or re-dedicate) our lives wholly and without reservation to our Lord Jesus.

As we enter Holy Week, let us prepare our hearts to meet our Lord Jesus at the cross, then our Lord again at the empty tomb. We won't be at MacRitchie Reservoir this year, but still, meet Him whenever you are, in the early dawn, watching the sun rise over our city in a garden.

“Golgotha is the mountain of shame that was transformed into the throne of God’s glory.” John Stott

Pastor David Wong
General Secretary, BPCIS
