From Shaking Fear to Fearful Joy

Matthew 28:1-10

A World shaken and fearful (vv. 1-4)

A LORD dead but now alive (vv. 5-7)

A People fearful yet full of joy (vv. 8-10)

Conclusion:

How is “Do not be afraid, ... Jesus has risen” a message for you?

Reflection Questions:

1. What are the fears that most shape the way you live right now (in work, studies, finances, world or society, relationships, health, or thoughts about death)?
2. If Jesus is really the risen Lord who has passed through death and is now alive, does that speak into that specific fear(s)?
3. If Jesus is really the risen Lord, are there areas of your life that you most resist His rule? What would it look like for you in the week ahead to submit that area to Him (be specific and concrete)?
4. The women leave the empty tomb with “fear and great joy.” What has changed for them? What does it mean for you that fear (being doubtful, unsure) can exist with great joy? What fears and doubts about Jesus and Christianity do you have today?

Prayer Points

Our Church

English as Second Language (ESL)

– Thank God for our teachers, many of whom have been faithfully serving year after year, availing themselves to share Christ's love to the ladies on Monday mornings through journeying together in friendship and teaching English. Pray for a deeper reliance on the Holy Spirit to refresh and renew our teachers weekly, and to entrust the work of their hands to Him that they may bear fruit in His time.

Christianity Explored (CE)

– Thank God for our 10 table hosts and 3 sessions we had together to think about evangelism and intentionally journeying with others in order to help them take steps closer to receiving Jesus as King. The next run begins this Wed, 8 Apr. Pray for us to be guided by His Spirit, to be warm in our welcome and displaying the love of Christ. Pray also for more seekers and friends to sign up.

Our People

Pray for those who are going through chronic and critical illnesses. Remember also those who are grieving the loss of loved ones. May the messages of promise and hope fill their hearts, minds and homes this Good Friday and Easter season. Pray for God's healing grace. Pray particularly for strength and mercy when the dark nights loom and with a faithful trust that all is in God's gracious Hand and God's good Plan.

Our World

Indonesia - Here's one impact story of our partner's ministry to the visually challenged. Thank God for Sister W, who is visually challenged herself who came to know the Lord through this ministry. She was filled with love for her family after that. Inspired by the humility and love of Jesus in the bible's account of the washing His disciple's feet, she decided to do the same for her sister and shared the gospel with her sister while doing so. As a result, her sister has begun to read the bible with sister W's mentor. Pray for this ministry to the blind to extend beyond the individuals coming to the Lord to their families and friends.

Jesus Has Risen, But, He Has To Die First

Blessed Easter, everyone! We should rejoice on Easter Sunday as we remember His victory over death, securing for fallen humanity eternal salvation once and for all. Indeed, Hallelujah! Jesus Has Risen!

But, He has to die first, isn't it? As we read through the Passion narratives of all the Gospels, even Acts, we will realize that the sequence of events were essentially a tapestry. One event must and will lead to another.

The New Testament as a whole talks about the death of Jesus as prophesied and central to His mission of redemption. The Gospels, the book of Acts, the Pauline Epistles and letter to the Hebrews, explicitly declare that Jesus must suffer, die, and be raised to fulfil Scripture in order to atone for sins.

- Jesus repeatedly predicted his death, telling disciples the "Son of Man must suffer many things" (Mark 8:31, Matthew 16:21, Luke 9:22, John 12:24-33 Acts 3:18; 17:3 etc).
- The NT presents Jesus' death as a ransom (Mark 10:45) and a necessary sacrifice to pay for sin (Hebrews 9:22, 1 Cor 15:3-5).
- Throughout the epistles, Jesus' death is described as the act that removes divine wrath and demonstrates God's love (Romans 5:9).

So Jesus must die! What about His disciples? In what ways must we "die" in order that we may truly experience the resurrected life of freedom, victory and glory? Perhaps, only we ourselves know. Yes, God knows. Yet, God does not force us, but waits patiently for our response.

PS: I am thinking if it would be possible to plan and organize an experiential death and resurrection Good Friday cum Easter extended time service, if not a weekend retreat? What do you think? 😊
