Until the LORD...

Isaiah 6:1-13

Right Placing (6:1-8)

God's rightful place – glory

Man's rightful place – ruin

....until the LORD sets right, sets free; for a purpose

A People Set Free? (6:9-12)

On hearing, on seeing, because of hardened hearts

“until the LORD has sent everyone far away”

The turning point in the Holy Seed

Our Responses

Discussion Questions:

1. Reading Isaiah 6:1-3, share moments when your world had fallen apart. What did you risk losing, which was most important to you at that time? Was God present in your pain then... is He now?
2. Why is it so easy to turn the blind eye, the deaf ear and the unmoved heart towards God? Why is recognizing our sin, and the need for forgiveness, important to move forward in the faith journey?
3. Isaiah 6:13b speaks of the cutting down of the terebinth and oak trees. Here, a "holy seed" is mentioned to bring hope that only God could give. What does God's hope mean for you?
4. In the light of missions engagement, share how God is moving you to respond whether in sending, praying, giving, reaching out or even going? How can AG members support each other moving forward?

Prayer Points

Our Church

English as Second Language (ESL)

Ministry – Thank God for past Monday's registration that saw 17 newcomers for the second half of the year. Pray for the health of our volunteer teachers, and that they will continue to be sensitive to the spiritual needs of the students and be able to build relationships with them. Pray also for God's guidance in their preparation and planning of their 10th Anniversary celebration.

Mission Prayer Night (Fridays in July)

- May our hearts be soft and ears open to listen to God's will and for us to respond in obedience. The last three Fridays saw JC (who was commissioned), KY (serving with Habibi) and EK and NK (a couple in training for service in West Asia) sharing more about their work. This coming week, sister CT will be sharing how she is beginning this journey of preparing herself for work cross-culturally. And in the final Friday of July, Ps Chris Rajendran will share about the work among the guest workers in Terusan Recreation Centre. May more people come to pray together.

Our People

Y and ET – Pray for Y and ET, newly weds who have moved overseas since April. They are now in West Asia and exploring opportunities to serve our heavenly Father. Pray for smooth adaptation to the culture, language and life together for the Lord. May they have clarity for their future ministry and for the church here to be faithful, relevant witnesses to the Father, so that all who are lost can find Him.

Our World

Nepal – Pray for the two ministry partners that we have in this country, serving least reached areas and peoples in remote places. Challenges to regular discipleship meetings are geographical, being far and hard to reach and also spiritual. Many are Tibetan Buddhist in these areas. Pray that the few brothers and sisters who follow Jesus in the high places of this country will be grounded in God's word and in spiritual community so that they can stand firm in the faith.

The BPCIS Retreat

Psalm 145:4 One generation shall commend your works to another, and shall declare your mighty acts.*

This year's retreat, involving leaders from 15 churches, was entitled "Cherishing Heritage, Cultivating Legacy". It centered around Psalm 145, with the desire that the works of God continue to be declared from one generation to another.

There were 3 plenary sessions – one on the past, one on the present, and one on the future – given by various BP Pastors from across the generations.

In the session on the past, the older leaders reminded us that the denomination was founded on 3 values: (1) a life of simplicity, (2) a love for Scripture, and (3) a passion for souls. However there were unintended side-effects, including an unhealthy view of full-time ministry, a narrow view of the Bible, and the lack of support for fellow churches.

In the session on the present, we were reminded that it was only because of God's kindness that we have come so far and that should deeply humble us. There was the repeated emphasis of the need to work together and support one another – as equal partners in God's kingdom. While this is happening in terms of retreats, pastors 321s, and ordination councils– more should be done, such as setting up an Endowment Fund (in process) to ensure all staff are paid adequately (regardless of church size) and having combined training – so that the leadership pipeline never runs dry. They spoke of "Team BPCIS" rather than individual churches.

For the final session on the future, the newest pastors shared that it was important to keep the 'everlasting kingdom' in view (as emphasized by Psalm 145), especially in such an unstable and ungodly world. With that hope in mind, the younger generation longed for (1) more faithful preaching, (2) a desire for holiness and once again (3) the need for a spirit of collaboration.

Overall, my personal sentiment is that there is a deep longing for more partnership... to be significantly more involved in each other's churches, to ensure that kingdom work and growth continue across the denomination – ultimately so that the proclamation of God's mighty works will continue all across the nation and beyond.

I believe it is time for our denomination to take the next step.
