Your Servant is Listening

Isaiah 50:1-11

“Here I Am” - Recap and Stories

Failure to Listen (50:1-3)

The Listening Servant Sings (50:4-9)

A servant who _____

Decision: Who do you serve? (50:10-11)

Conclusion: Your Servant is Listening

Reflection Questions:

1. What did you learn from the example of the servant of the Lord in Isaiah 50? What struck you the most about the servant?
2. Have you committed to listen to God’s voice? To trust and obey Him?
3. Discipleship and Missions begin with listening. What have you heard from the Lord? How is the Lord calling you to serve Him in mission?

Prayer Points

Our Church

Session Retreat – Do pray for the pastors and elders as they meet for a retreat this coming Saturday. They'll be deliberating on the vision of the church for the next season. May God grant wisdom and discernment.

Basic AG Leaders Equipping -

Thank God for the 11 brothers and sisters who set aside precious time for the last 2 months as they journeyed together through the BAGLE Course! May they be formed and shaped by the Shepherd and His voice, before they undertake the privilege and duty of caring for other sheep. Pray for many of them who are seriously considering a season of stepping forward to co-lead in their respective Action Groups.

A&A Building Project – We have encountered some delays in the works due to additional requirements by Building Control Authority before we can proceed with the main steel works in Level 5. Please pray for all involved and for the works to be carried out to meet those requirements.

Our People

Dns En Qi, Katelyn and JC –

They head to Arise Asia conference next week, joining many youth and leaders from the region. Pray that as they gather to listen, engage and unite with other believers in the Great Commission, their hearts will be in the right posture to worship God and catch His heart for the lost. May they enjoy meaningful fellowship and build relationships with brothers and sisters in the faith. Pray for attentive hearts ready to listen to His Spirit, and for faith and courage to obey where He calls.

Our World

Bangladesh – Pray for SQ, DM, KY and one other who will be going to this country next week. They will be spending time to learn and fellowship with brothers and sisters there who are sharing the love of Jesus in their most populated city. This country is home to the largest unreached people group in the world. Pray for good times of learning, fellowship and connection so that the gospel may go out to all of them.

Church Family News

1. Our deepest condolences to Preacher Choo on the Homegoing of his elder brother, the late Mr William Choo, aged 65, on 19 July 2026 in Canada where he lived. Please pray for God's comfort and grace to be with the family during this time of bereavement.
2. Session Update
 - We thank God for the new term of Session, with our 5 newly elected elders and pastors!
 - Session approved the adjustment in staff salary, as mentioned at the previous ACM, to come into effect by Jan 2027. We pray this will encourage our present staff and invite more to enter full-time ministry. Details will be shared at the "Ministry Behind the Money" later this year.

Have you 'kept' Revelation?

This past week, Zion Bishan hosted more than 1000 people from various churches in Singapore – all gathered to hear from the book of Revelation of Jesus Christ.

It's been just over 2 years since we finished our own Revelation sermon series in May 2024, so I'm thankful to have been reminded of some great truths from the letter.

Can you remember some of the big lessons the Lord taught us back in Revelation?

Remember how the letter begins...

1 The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave Him to show to His servants the things that must soon take place...

³ Blessed is the one who reads aloud the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear, and who keep what is written in it, for the time is near.¹

And so the question I've been asking myself this week is this: 'Have I kept what I've heard in Revelation?'

Firstly, have I kept it in the sense of remembering the big lessons we learnt? Or have I forgotten them, letting those lessons fade into unimportance in my memory?

But perhaps even more importantly, have I kept the words that God wrote to us through John by heeding them, obeying them and shaping my life around what was written to us?

If you're someone who has not kept Revelation as well as you could have, may I encourage you to go back and read the letter again? Have a look at some of your sermon notes, or take advantage of the fact that we record all our sermons and post them on Youtube – there are lots of ways you can keep these precious words once again.

Let me leave you with the one big motivation that has helped my heart desire to do so. Remember whose words these are!

To Him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by His blood ⁶and made us a kingdom, priests to His God and Father...²

Words of our loving King written to us. That's what Revelation is. Let's hear and obey these His words again. To the Worthy and Returning Lamb be glory as we do so.

² Revelation 1:5-6

Missions Month 2026 Response Cards

Thank you for the commitment you are making. It is between you and the Lord, having heard His voice.

Beginning this Sun till 9 Aug, submit your response cards in the boxes at the sliding doors of both the lower and upper Sanctuary. You are also encouraged to keep a digital copy or take a photo of it before submitting.

May each of us be continuing to listen to Him.

"Day of His Power" Prayer Meeting

7 Aug (Fri) 8pm, Main Sanctuary

This is part of "Day of His Power" - a nation-wide prayer gathering hosted by various churches. Our focus will be on Praying for the Suffering Church - Christians facing persecution worldwide.

Registration not required.
